No.	Issue	Discussion	Action	Member	Deadline
1	Sprint Boot setup	Don went over the sprint boot setup progress, and basic Customer class created. The team discussed how different users would be stored – a single table vs multiple, and using a separate user type table	Design database structure – we need a more concrete design before we progress more with the API endpoints	Don (with input from team)	13/8 (client meeting)
2	Front end progress	Ali and Ge discussed progress, will start on front end items to show client on Thursday.	Login and home front end	Ali, Ge	13/8 (client meeting)
3	MS1 progress	The team discussed progress towards milestone 1. We have most of the user stories complete, some need refining, and maybe a few more for any missing functionality.	User stories – team will go over current stories prior to submission	All	17/8 (MS1)
			Acceptance Tests – Ali assigned specific acceptance tests to each team member	All - see conversion on Teams for assigned stories
			Endpoints – on track to finish 3-6 api endpoints	Don, Carlo
			Unit tests – complete/impl unit tests for completed endpoints	Don, Carlo
			Front end – should also be able to submit initial front end templates	Ali, Ge
4	Questions for client	Don raised a few questions:	Confirm with client on Thursday	Don	13/8 (client meeting)

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • users – can an employee be a customer too? Or are they mutually exclusive? • ClickUp use – should items be moved from Backlog to Sprint, or should tasks be create under each sprint with user stories progressing through backlog? • MS1 3-6 backend services - does this mean 3-6 endpoints? • Clusters – are admins/workers restricted to clusters, I.e. admins can only administrate workers within their cluster/business, or are they admins for entire worker set <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ IE are workers part of a business? Which has an admin and some workers ○ Are admins and workers part of a business • Do services/business have hours? The fn specs only mention hours for a worker rather than a business/service
